Harbours	http://porty24.pl/

Swinging mooring buoys for pleasure yachts	There are none in Poland.
Anchoring and free access ashore	Basically yachts can anchor anywhere except channels, as long as they do not interfere with ships, boats etc. Access to shore is allowed anywhere, but note that anchoring offshore can be dangerous if the wind direction changes, due to the lack of shelter from the flat land.
Good harbour manners	In Polish harbours a quiet environment is expected after 2200 As a guest you can use any available mooring/berth place in the harbour except ones with boards, which are reserved for owners. It is also good to contact the harbour master.
Safety in harbours	Basically use common sense.
Staying during the winter	Contact local harbours regarding availability of places for boats "on the hard". If staying in the water, check with local harbour. Be aware that some harbours freeze in the winter.
Antifouling regulations	In accordance with EU biocide directive.
Fuel availability	Diesel and petrol are available in Świnoujście, Łeba, Gdańsk and Gdynia. There is also possibility to arrange a fuel tanker. No additives to fuel for marine use.
Gas availability	Bottled gas in the most common systems generally available on petrol stations. Please consider the type of bottle used in Poland ( http://www.interloop.pl/butla-gazowa-turystyczna-3-kg.html ). There is no possibility to refill the bottle.
Pump out stations for fuel and oily water	There is only a few stations in main ports.
Public transport	Trains: http://www.rozklad-pkp.pl All: http://www.e-podroznik.pl
Shopping hours	It depends of the locality, in big cities some shops are open even 24/7
Important phone numbers, home pages and useful links	Useful phones and VHF channels: Emergency No. 112 http://www.zeglarstwo.sail-ho.pl/telefon/telefon.htm Electronics: http://navinord.pl/ Sails: http://oceansails.pl/ Pomeranian Sailing Association: http://www.pozz.org.pl/ / +48 586210912
Practical advice	Entry to Polish harbours (other than those in Gdansk Bay) can be dangerous in strong onshore winds (F5 Bft - 11m/s and above). It is best to call the harbour master and enquire about conditions, depth etc before entering.
